Re: United States of America v. Patrycja Wojtowicz, 7:19-cr-00434 (VB)

Dear Judge Briccetti:

We represent defendant Patrycja Wojtowicz in the above-captioned action.

On August 11, 2022, this Court sentenced Ms. Wojtowicz to time served with three years of supervised release. Ms. Wojtowicz's supervised release has been without issue and she was transferred by the Probation Office to the Low Intensity Caseload (LIC). We are writing to request permission for Ms. Wojtowicz to travel to Poland to visit her family, from May 3, 2024 through May 13, 2024. This may be Ms. Wojtowicz's last opportunity to see her grandmother, as her health is rapidly declining.

The Court granted Ms. Wojtowicz's request to travel to Poland to visit her family last year (Dkt. 56) and the trip took place without any issue. Ms. Wojtowicz has provided to Probation the details of her trip. Both Probation and the assigned AUSA have confirmed that they have no objection to this travel request. (See Exs. A and B.)

Respectfully Submitted,
